PENNSYLVANIA R. R.

CONFEDERATE OFFICER
OWED LIFE TO LINCOLN

Funeral of Capt. Samuel B. Davis,
Formerly of Washington, Will Be Held Today.

HE SERVED AT ANDERSONVILLE

Alexandria, Va., Sept. 25.—The funeral of Capt. Samuel B. Davis, a former resident of this city, who died in Washington Thursday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clara F. Marbury, will take place at 11:30 o'clock tomorrow morning from Christ P. A. Church. Burial will be in Ivy Hill Cemetery. Burial of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veteran, will attend.

Capt. Davis was seventy years old and besides his wife is survived by four children, Mrs. Marbury, Mrs. Dunn, Maury and Bert Davis.

Capt. Davis during the war served as a lieutenant under Capt. Wirs, who had charge of the Andersonville prison.

During the progress of the war he undertook the important mission of going to Canada as a representative of the Southern Confederacy to consult commissioners of the Confederacy.

He was intercepted by Union soldiers and taken in custody. Papers found on him resulted in his court-martial and he was ordered to be hanged. President Lincoln stayed the sentence, it being stipulated that he was to remain a prisoner until the close of the war.

The union Sunday school parade and song festival, which will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, October 11, will be participated in by 1,500 children. It will be held under the auspices of the Alexandria Sunday School Association, of which J. Frank Myers is president. Chairman of the various committees are: N. S. Green, music; P. L. Slavmaker, parade; A. W. Harnden, decoration; J. H. Trimyer, finance, and J. R. Mansfield, press.

With the election of Thomas Chaucer as president and David E. Robey as secretary, a Crupper club has been organized here. Its purpose is to further the candidacy of Joseph L. Crupper, Republican nominee for Congress from the Eighth district.

J. Fred Birrell, who represents this city and Alexandria County in the State legislature, will be a candidate to succeed himself.

The finance committee of the city council has organized with the election of Capt. Albert Bryan as chairman and H. R. Burke as secretary.

The election of Clarence N. Moore, Charles J. Deahl, and Frank T. King as trustees of Grace P. E. Church, was confirmed today in the corporation court.

The funeral of Mrs. Henry Parrish will take place at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from her late home at Cottage Park, Alexandria County.

Infant Abandoned by Mother at Higgs Street Home.

When Miss Catherine Crowley, of 1225 Riggs street northwest, went to the front door of her home last night to look for her sister, who was late, she ran into a bundle in the vestibule which later proved to be a fine baby boy of six months that had been abandoned.

Now a score of detectives and the entire police department are trying to locate the mother. In the bundle besides the baby was a quantity of fine clothing and near by was a bottle of milk.

The baby was taken into the Crowley home, and later to the Foundling Hospital. There Miss Alice Blennerhassett, nurse, identified it as being one brought to the hospital earlier in the evening by a woman who wanted to leave there. The mother was told it would be necessary for the Childs' Board of Guardians to commit the child to the institution.

FOREIGN TRADE DROPS OFF.

Imports Fall $5,000 and Exports
$77,000,000 for August.

Detailed figures of the imports and exports for the month of August show the tremendous effect of the war.

The imports were almost $5,000,000 below the total for the same month of last year. The loss in imports from Europe was more than $17,000,000, but a decided gain came from Canada and South America. Imports from Germany were $2,400,000, compared with $15,628,000 in 1912. Imports from the United Kingdom were $17,872,000, compared with $20,718,000 a year ago. There was a difference of almost $7,000,000 in exports. Europe dropped off $58,000,000, being $48,575,000 compared with $107,156,000 a year ago. The most astounding drop was in the exports to Germany. A year ago this country sent to Germany $21,301,000 of its products and manufactures. During August of this year the United States exported to Germany only $28,275.

POLICEMAN CREAGH DIES.

Mounted Policeman Patrick Creagh, of the Third precinct, one of the best known men on the force, died after a few days illness last night at his home, 327 H street southwest. He spent more than a quarter of a century in the police department and led the mounted police division in several inaugural parades. He is survived by a wife and two daughters. The latter are Misses Nellie and Loretta Creagh. Policeman Creagh was born in Philadelphia in 1865.

ASK FIRE PROTECTION.

Representatives of the Chevy Chase and Connecticut Avenue Citizens' Association appeared before the District Commissioners yesterday to ask that additional protection be given Chevy Chase, Cleveland Park, and Connecticut Avenue. It is desired that an engine house be located at Connecticut Avenue and Grand road, a site owned by the municipal government. It was stated at the hearing that within two years 150 houses have been erected within a radius of a quarter of a mile from this site.

CANNOT FLY OVER ITALY.

Rome, Sept. 25.—The government issued a decree today forbidding aviators from flying over Italian soil.

The Town Crier

Thirty loaves of bread were stolen early yesterday morning from a box in front of the store of Oscar Helman, 1219 Fifth street northwest.

A gold locket, set with small diamonds, was stolen from the apartments of Mrs. Ora Caldwell, 1253 Ninth street southeast, early yesterday morning.

A United States civil service examination for the position of city mail carrier and clerk, the salaries ranging from $100 to $1,200, will be held in this city on November 11.

A reception will be given Monday night in the new city postoffice building by the officials of the office. All interested will be given an opportunity to inspect the building and equipment.

Repairs are being made to the big naval wireless station at Arlington, Va., which was rendered useless when the antennae were blown against the towers grounding the circuit late Thursday night.

Dr. Edward C. Geisler will speak tomorrow night at the Bahai meeting at Pythian Temple on "The Day of God." He has just returned from India, where he has been spreading the principles of the Bahai revelation among the Parsees.

Mrs. Rose C. Falgout, forty years old, rooming at 623 Twentieth street northeast, was found dead in bed early yesterday morning. Coroner J. Ramsey Nevitt issued a certificate of natural death.

Joseph R. Hertford, sixty-eight years old, 1438 Hobart street northwest, received a scalp wound and concussion of the brain yesterday afternoon when he was struck by a street car in Fourteenth, between Taylor and Upshur streets northwest. He was taken to Garfield Hospital.

Funeral services for Capt. Samuel Boyer Davis, a Confederate veteran, who died Thursday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clara F. Marbury, 1225 10th street northwest, will be held at 11 o'clock this morning at Christ Church, Alexandria. Burial will be in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Washington, D. C., Friday, September 25, 1914.
8 p. m.—The Gulf storm has passed northeastward and the weather has cleared generally throughout the Eastern States. There were, however, some showers in the West, and heavy showers in the Atlantic States and at scattered points in the region of the Great Lakes. Over western districts the weather is the same. Temperatures are lower in the Atlantic States and they have risen in the Plains States and the Northwest.

The indications are that the weather will be generally fair Saturday and Sunday over practically all parts of the country.

Temperature will rise Saturday and Sunday in the Upper Mississippi Valley and Upper Lake region and Sunday in the Lower Lake region and Upper Ohio Valley. No important temperature change is expected for Monday.

The winds along the north Atlantic coast will be fresh northwest, on the middle Atlantic coast fresh to strong north to northeast, on the south Atlantic coast fresh to strong north and west. On the west Gulf coast fresh north, on the east Gulf coast moderate variable, on the upper lake moderate variable, on the lower lake moderate fresh, becoming variable.

For the District of Columbia, and Maryland, fair Saturday and Sunday, fresh north winds. For Virginia, fair Saturday and Sunday; strong north winds, diminishing.

Local temperature—midnight, 59; 2 a. m., 57; 4 a. m., 56; 6 a. m., 56; 8 a. m., 57; 10 a. m., 59; 12 noon, 62; 2 p. m., 64; 4 p. m., 65; 6 p. m., 61; 8 p. m., 61.
